

COLLEGE DEPARTMENT.

Send Subscriptions and Donations, for the University, to
ELDER JOSIAH KEIM,
LOUISVILLE,
Stark County, OHIO.

From Bro. Wampler.

Bro. Wampler, President of the Board of Trustees of the University, authorizes us to say—That the outlook is fairly good but not so good that our workers dare leave up in their work. If we get the first payment made there will be no trouble about the rest and every nerve must be bent to accomplish that.

The old subscriptions can nearly all be collected in time, but I have one trouble that is hindering me. I frequently write to brethren in the kindest possible spirit yet receive no answer. I would sooner they answer my request by a flat refusal than to say nothing.

I have collected the following amounts of cash, (pennies not counted):

A Brother,	$20.00
H. M. Lichtey,	88.00
E. Mason,	80.00
Jacob Hazen,	65.75
Simon Oaks,	15.00
Ella Oaks,	10.00
Hugh McCay, (Deffenb'gh)	100.00

Total, $378.75

These amounts have all been paid in on old notes, etc. I have promises for a good deal more till Sept. 15th, but will not count it until it is cash in hand.

Now, remember, your effort may raise the last dollar required to save the school or your inactivity be the means of final loss. And if you do your part and others fail in theirs, your money will be returned to you and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that your conscience is clear.

V. E. WAMPLER.

Katie J. Stutzman, of Johnstown, Pa., favors the College with a donation of one dollar. This she procured by cultivating a piece of ground. Her letter will be in the children's column next week.

Ikie Harrison, of Pleasant Hill, O., sends twenty-five cents for the College. He wants to be in the company of big folks too.

Emma Puterbaugh, of Lanark, Ill., sends one dollar donation of her sister Amanda, and fifty cents for her youngest sister.

Bro. Z. T. Livengood, writes: "It looks very much now as though the College would prosper, through the indefatigable labors of the young brethren." Indeed it does. If they receive the encouragement and support they should, will seem to be set forward twenty years.

Only One Cent.

Readers of this paper have undoubtedly seen the large advertisement of a prominent Soap manufacturing firm which appeared in our issue June 26th. A good many will wonder how any one in this grasping age is willing to give so much for so little money.

"How do you like your bargain," was asked of a well-known lawyer a few days ago.

"Like it? Why, man, how can I help but like it. The laundress says 'Sweet Home' is the best soap she has ever used. Think of it. Enough soap to last a year, toilet soap enough to start a drug-store, and presents for the lady of the house, seven children, two servant girls and the hired man," and he passed down the street whistling "Sweet Home."

It will cost only a cent for a postal card to send your name and address to J. d. larkin & co., buffalo, n. y. The Great Bargain Box will then be delivered at your door, and if in thirty days you are not pleased with the goods in every way, you need not feel under any obligation to keep the case, but it will be called for and taken away free of all expense to you.

A Problem.

In a certain city there is Rev. A—— pastor of a Conservative church; also a Rev. B—— pastor of a Progressive church. A is about to leave his church. Says A to B, "Your folks ought to unite with my folks. Now you promise to leave when I do—so your folks will will have to unite with mine—and let us have union." Rev. B. declined.

Question—How much of that "Pure Religion undefiled," spoken of by John, has Rev. A—— in his heart? X.

An old minister of the last century, a predecessor of the writer, in a Massachusetts parish, observing one Sunday that a person in his congregation had gaped his jaw out of joint, and was listening with mouth wide open, descended from the pulpit and adjusted the man's jaw. But in some of our churches today pastors find it more difficult to pry open the mouths of the members than to shut any whose owners can not do it themselves.—Golden Rule.

A paralyzing paragraph to the Christian liquor-drinker is this sentence from one of the sermons of Queen Victoria's late chaplain, the celebrated Dr. Thomas Guthrie: "Whiskey is the devil's way to man and man's way to the devil."

Remember Dr. Brumbaugh guarantees entire satisfaction to every person using any of his preparations or refunds the money so you run no risks.

For fifteen years I have been afflicted with RHEUMATISM so that I was unable to work at times. I used many other remedies without effect; with four bottles of your rheumatism remedy I was perfectly cured.

Samuel Moore, Bettsville, O.
Your Peoples' Favorite Remedy is an excellent medicine with me. It is a sure cure for all Throat, Lung and Kidney trouble and at the same time one of the best medicines I ever used for stomach trouble as it regulates the bowels acting as a gentle laxative which persons of sedentary habits so much need. I consider it one of the most valuable medicines ever sold.

W. G. Heltman, Ashland, O.

Prohibition News.

In Monroe County, Illinois there are more saloon-keepers than Sunday schools scholars.

In eight counties in Kentucky there is prohibition of the liquor traffic through local option.

In the five years ending with 1887, Boston sent to Africa 3,500,000 gallons of intoxicating liquors.

The W. C. T. U. Executive Committee have decided to have next National Convention at New York, date to be announced later.

At the Brewers' National Convention at St. Paul, Minnesota, it was stated that the annual production of American beer amounts to 22,560,435 barrels.

Arthur P. Ferguson, of Quimby, Iowa, writes that the prohibition law of that State is a wonderful blessing, even in places where the German population is in a majority.

Sufferers from indigestion, loss of appetite, liver or kidney complaints, rheumatism or neuralgia, would do well to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. For all such disorders, no medicine is so effective as this, when faithfully and perseveringly used.
